Ready Bake Foods (a Weston Foods subsidiary) is Expanding in Cobourg

An established food processing facility in Cobourg is expanding production, creating jobs and strengthening the local economy.

With support from Ontario's Rural Economic Development Program, Ready Bake Foods (a Weston Foods subsidiary) is expanding their existing building and creating a newly renovated state-of-the-art facility in Cobourg. This new facility will help Ready Bake ramp up the efficiency of their operations and create new product lines.

This investment will create up to 60 new jobs and retain 90 skilled positions. It will also mean more demand for the products of local farmers and manufacturers.

"The Town of Cobourg is pleased to partner with the Province to help support Weston Foods Canada and Ready Bake Foods Inc. improve their operations in Cobourg. This project supports local food processing, Ontario farmers and has the potential to generate up to 60 new job opportunities in the future."

– Peter Delanty, Mayor of Cobourg

"By helping processors like Weston Foods Canada and Ready Bake Foods Inc. upgrade and expand their operations, we're creating jobs, investing in local food products and helping to build a brighter future for families in Northumberland County."

– Lou Rinaldi, Member of Provincial Parliament for Northumberland–Quinte West

"Having the provincial support to expand our business in Ontario has been key in our continued success. With the newly renovated facility in Cobourg, Ready Bake Foods will be able to continue to expand our product lines, increase sales, and create jobs for the community."

– Ed Holik, President, Ready Bake Foods Inc.
